PERSONAL SUMMARY

A pragmatic and logical thinker with a natural affinity for keeping things simple and effective prioritisation, completing formal qualifications balanced with work and volunteering experiences. In 2020/1 with the notable lack of work available I spent a lot of time researching and investing in blockchain technologies and stocks, an interest which has grown into a prominent hobby. Over 2021/2 I have been slowly learning basic Japanese language skills, which I plan to become fluent living in Japan
